

PROPAGATION PROTOCOL

Germination and propagation of sweetgrass
 (Anthoxanthum nitens (Weber) Y. Schouten & Veldkamp [Poaceae])
 for growing in Mi'kmaq community gardens
Rachel A Kendall, John A Francis, and Mathew R Vankoughnett 4

GENERAL TECHNICAL

A collaborative approach to collecting native early season
 milkweeds in California for monarch butterfly habitat restoration
Thomas D Landis, Hillary Sardiñas, Sarah Cusser, and Kylie J Etter 22

NATIVE PLANT MATERIALS DIRECTORY

Alphabetical listing 33
 Location index 89

AUTHOR GUIDELINES 98

Photo credits: (top) heartleaf milkweed (Asclepias cordifolia Benth. [Asclepiadaceae]), photo by Tanya Harvey; (middle) maturing follicles in organza bags to prevent seed loss, photo by Mary Duffy; (bottom left) late instar caterpillars feeding on heartleaf milkweed in April, photo by Rick Staub; (lower middle) close-up of sweetgrass florets (Anthoxanthum nitens (Weber) Y. Schouten & Veldkamp [Poaceae]), photo by Rachel A Kendall; (bottom right) making a sweetgrass braid, photo by Rachel A Kendall